Summary: The only reason I am posting this is that I want to beta, and 5 fics is a requirement. I wrote this before Christmas last year since my homeroom was doing a Stranger Things-themed tree. It's not very good since I'm not actually part of this fandom, but I'd like to flatter myself by saying I did my best.

X-Mas Poem

Friends don't lie
Demogorgon, Dart
Shadow monster
and please don't die

String up lights
all to find him
When that's done
El still fights

Run the halls escape the lab
flee through forest
And dance Snow Balls

Merry Christmas.
